

United States illegally. I plan to offer two additional amendments to deal with this issue. The first would amend section 245(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, so that illegal aliens who become eligible for an immigrant visa can no longer attain the visa by paying a fee that lifts the requirement to depart the United States. Section 245(i) encourages people who are awaiting an immigrant visa to jump illegally ahead of others, simply by paying a fee. Senator HUTCHISON and I also plan to offer an amendment that, with a number of exceptions, would exclude for 10 years those who have entered without inspection from obtaining a visa.

S. 1664 also makes clear that you cannot skirt the law by entering the country legally and then overstaying a visa. Another amendment I offered that the subcommittee adopted requires individuals who have overstayed their visas to return home to obtain another visa, period. And, the last successful amendment regarding overstayers, offered by Senator ABRAHAM and cosponsored by me, requires visa overstayers to return home for 3 years before applying for another visa. While this last amendment goes far, I plan to offer an amendment with Senator HUTCHISON that would, with a number of exceptions, exclude for 10 years those individuals who have overstayed their visas for more than a year.

For those individuals who come to this country and commit crimes—and there are 450,000 criminal in jails and at large in this country—there are provisions in the bill to keep them off our streets and deport more quickly. I am pleased that a bill I introduced last year, to encourage the President to renegotiate prison transfer treaties so that aliens convicted of crimes can no longer choose whether or not they serve out their sentences here or in their home country, was added to the bill. Also passed was my amendment to advise the President to renegotiate these treaties so that if a transferred prisoner returns to the United States prior to the completion of a sentence, the U.S. sentence is not discharged. The committee also passed a number of amendments I cosponsored, offered by Senator ABRAHAM, that strengthen the detainment and deportation of criminal aliens in other ways.

There are a number of other provisions in this bill that are important, including provisions to streamline the system by which asylum seekers apply to stay in the United States. While refugees are still offered important protections, abuse of the system will be largely curtailed by a new system allowing specially trained asylum officers at ports of entry to determine if refugee seekers have a credible fear of persecution. If they do, then they go through the process of establishing a well-founded fear of persecution in order to stay in the United States.

By allowing these especially trained officers to make decisions at ports of entry, it will be more difficult for individuals to simply fill out an asylum application, be released into the streets, and possibly never show up for asylum proceedings.

The bill we are debating this week includes provisions that Senator SIMPSON and his staff have worked hard to develop and protect. Many of them are a response to the Jordan Commission recommendations. It includes bipartisan provisions on which Senators from both sides of the aisle have diligently worked.

As we begin to consider this important bill, we have to remember that, unless we protect our borders and insist that our immigration laws are taken seriously, we undermine the law, and that undermines the United States as a land of opportunity for all—both foreign and native born. My grandparents immigrated to the United States from Holland. I think they would be concerned about how our immigration system works today.

The American dream must be kept alive for citizens and for those who came here legally. A government not in control of its own borders is not serving the public well.

I urge my colleagues to pass a bill that will address these important problems. Again, I very sincerely thank the chairman of the Immigration Subcommittee of the Judiciary Committee for his long years of work in this area and for his willingness to work with everybody on the committee to craft the best bill possible so that he can begin to deal with these serious problems.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. President, I thank my colleague from Arizona. I only want to say that it has been a great joy to work with him on the Committee on Immigration. He is a remarkable contributing member, brings a vigor and intelligence and skill to the committee, to the subcommittee, and to the full committee. There could not be a finer new Member of the body participating in the measure, and it will be a great personal satisfaction for me that he will continue on with this issue. I certainly hope, also, that it might be in the capacity as chairman of the Subcommittee on Immigration.

I know that Senator KENNEDY will work with whoever my successor will be, and I think we will find certainly a great deal of pleasure in working with Senator KYL. I thank him very much for all that he has done.

I yield to Senator BRYAN of Nevada since the business of the floor is the immigration bill and since I hold the floor.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, regular order.

Mr. SIMPSON. I hold the floor. I believe that is the case.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SIMPSON. You recognized me. I intended to yield to Senator BRYAN.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Mr. KYL). The Senator will state the parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. DORGAN. The Senator from Wyoming yielded to the Senator from Nevada for a question. Does the Senator from Wyoming control time on the floor of the Senate at this point?

Mr. SIMPSON. I have the floor, Mr. President.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from North Dakota should be advised that Senator SIMPSON may yield to the Senator from Nevada with consent.

Is there any objection?

Mr. DORGAN. I object.

Mr. DORGAN addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Objection is heard.

The Senator from North Dakota.

Mr. DORGAN addressed the Chair.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. President, what is the status of the situation on the floor at the present time? Objection is sustained and not—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. At the present time, I will advise the Senator from Wyoming that, absent unanimous consent to do otherwise, the Senate, under the previous order, will resume consideration of S. 1664.

Mr. SIMPSON. Yes. But after the objection, then there is no yielding of any measure to the Senator from North Dakota. He does not then take the floor.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. That is correct.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SIMPSON. This Senator, I am advised and wanted to be absolutely certain, does control the floor, and I can yield to the Senator from Nevada, and at the end of that time I intend to yield to the Senator from Wisconsin, Senator FEINGOLD, and to Senator GRASSLEY, because we are doing an immigration bill. We are not doing Social Security. We are not doing balanced budgets this morning.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SIMPSON. Those are subjects that the Senator from North Dakota would like to address.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator is correct.

IMMIGRATION CONTROL AND FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY ACT OF 1996

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the Senate will resume consideration of S. 1664, which the clerk will report.

Mr. DORGAN. Parliamentary inquiry.

The bill clerk read as follows:

A bill (S. 1664) to amend the Immigration and Nationality Act to increase control over immigration to the United States by increasing border patrol and investigative personnel and detention facilities, improving the system used by employers to verify citizenship or work-authorized alien status, increasing penalties for alien smuggling and document fraud, and reforming asylum, exclusion, and deportation law and procedures; to reduce the use of welfare by aliens; and for other purposes.

The Senate resumed consideration of the bill.

Pending:

Dorgan amendment No. 3667, to express the sense of the Senate that a balanced budget constitutional amendment should protect the Social Security system by excluding the receipts and outlays of the Social Security trust funds from the budget.

Simpson amendment No. 3669, to prohibit foreign students on F-1 visas from obtaining free public elementary or secondary education.

Simpson amendment No. 3670, to establish a pilot program to collect information relating to nonimmigrant foreign students.

Simpson amendment No. 3671, to create new ground of exclusion and of deportation for falsely claiming U.S. citizenship.

Simpson amendment No. 3672 (to amendment No. 3667), in the nature of a substitute.

Several Senators addressed the Chair.

Mr. DORGAN. Parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from North Dakota will state his inquiry, and then it is the Chair's intention to recognize the Senator from—

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, the parliamentary inquiry is this. When I offered an objection to the unanimous-consent request, the unanimous-consent request was then not agreed to. At that moment I said, "Mr. President," and the Chair recognized the Senator from North Dakota.

I do not quite understand that the right of recognition on the floor of the Senate has changed because I read the rule book about the right of recognition. After I was recognized, the Senator from Wyoming then asked a series of questions of the Chair, from whom he got a sympathetic answer, which does not comport with the rules of Senate.

I would like to understand the circumstances which existed when the Chair recognized me after I objected.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator knows that the stating of a parliamentary inquiry does not gain the floor. The Senator from Wyoming has the floor. The floor was placed under the regular order, which the Senator from North Dakota had called for. Under the previous order, the Senate resumed consideration of S. 1664, which is the pending business. The Chair asked the clerk to report. The Senator from Wyoming has the floor.

Mr. DORGAN. Parliamentary inquiry. This Senator begs to differ with the President. The circumstances of the Senate were this: The Senator from Wyoming propounded a unanimous-consent request. The Chair asked if there was an objection. The Senator from North Dakota objected. At that point, the Senator from North Dakota addressed the President, "Mr. President." The President of the Senate recognized the Senator from North Dakota. At that point I was recognized and had the floor of the Senate.

I do not understand the ruling or the interpretation of the Chair that leads to a different result. I would very much like to try to understand that.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from North Dakota is correct to this extent: The pending business is S. 1664. The chairman of the Immigration Subcommittee, Senator SIMPSON, has the right to be recognized under that pending business. The Chair has recognized the Senator.

Mr. DORGAN. Parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. President, may I just ask my friend from North Dakota? I think the Chair could easily have determined that in recognizing the Senator from North Dakota, it was for the point of parliamentary inquiry. That was all that the Senator from North Dakota was seeking. If he was recognized, which he was, then certainly it was on the point of a parliamentary inquiry. I think that is perhaps the confusion.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry: The right of—

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair, the President, will state again to the Senator from North Dakota that no one has the right to the floor when the President is asking the clerk to read the bill, which is the regular order. At that point in time, the Senator from Wyoming has the right to be recognized, and the Chair has recognized him.

So the Senator from Wyoming is recognized.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, parliamentary inquiry. Did the Senator from Wyoming seek the floor when I made the objection to the unanimous-consent request?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. No.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, after the unanimous-consent request was made and I objected, for what purpose did the Presiding Officer recognize the Senator from North Dakota? The transcript will show that the President recognized the Senator from North Dakota at that point.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Presiding Officer recognized the Senator from North Dakota for the purpose of inquiring what the nature of the parliamentary inquiry was and recognized the Senator from Wyoming and the manager of the bill, which is the pending business. It automatically became the pending business.

Mr. DORGAN. Further parliamentary inquiry. I think a mistake has been made here. I think I could easily understand what the mistake is if we had the transcript read back.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Wyoming is recognized.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. President, I hope that all of us understand what the situation is—I do anyway—and that is that the Senator from North Dakota feels very strongly about an issue which he proposed yesterday that had to do with a balanced budget amendment and Social Security and offsets and that type of thing, a rather consistent theme by the Senator from North Dakota that he talked about. There is also a proposal—I am not leadership. I am not representing leadership. What we are trying to do is go forward with an immigration bill. There will be many extraneous amendments on this bill, I feel quite certain. All I am trying to do is to get to the hour of 2:15, after which time the Senator from North Dakota may do anything that he desires to do with regard to the issue.

At this time I yield the floor for purposes of an opening statement by Senator BRYAN of Nevada.

Mr. DORGAN. I object, Mr. President.

Mr. BRYAN. I thank the Chair.

Mr. DORGAN. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. SIMPSON. There is not anything to object to.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Did the Senator from Wyoming propound a—

Mr. SIMPSON. No; I did not propose a unanimous-consent request. I simply yielded the floor to the Senator from Nevada.

Several Senators addressed the Chair.

Mr. DORGAN. Parliamentary inquiry. That is not the way the Senate operates.

Mr. KENNEDY. The rules of the Senate require one can only yield for purposes of a question. That has been the rule for 200 years.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Senator from Massachusetts is correct.

Mr. DOLE addressed the Chair.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The distinguished majority leader.

RECESS

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, I move we stand in recess until 2:15.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to standing in recess until 2:15?

Without objection, it is so ordered.

The motion was agreed to, and, at 11:21 a.m., the Senate recessed until 2:15 p.m.; whereupon, the Senate reassembled when called to order by the Presiding Officer [Mr. COATS].

WHITEWATER DEVELOPMENT CORP. AND RELATED MATTERS—MOTION TO PROCEED

CLOTURE MOTION

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Under the previous order, the hour of 2:15 p.m. having arrived, under rule XXII, the clerk will report the motion to invoke cloture on the motion to proceed to Senate Resolution 227.

The legislative clerk read as follows:

CLOTURE MOTION

We the undersigned Senators, in accordance with the provisions of Rule XXII of the Standing Rules of the Senate, do hereby move to bring to a close debate on the motion to proceed to S. Res. 227, regarding the Whitewater extension.

Alfonse D'Amato, Dan Coats, Phil Gramm, Bob Smith, Mike DeWine, Bill Roth, Bill Cohen, Jim Jeffords, R.F. Bennett, John Warner, Larry Pressler, Spencer Abraham, Conrad Burns, Al
